मराठी भाषा गौरव दिन

आयोजक- प्रवरा ग्रामीण औषध निर्माण शास्त्र महाविद्यालय व सावित्रीबाई फुले पुणे विद्यापीठ यांचे संयुक्त विद्यमाने मराठी भाषा गौरव दिन ऑनलाईन पद्धतीने साजरा करण्यात आला.

प्रवरा रुलर कॉलेज ऑफ फार्मसी लोणी येथे मराठी भाषा गौरव दिन ऑनलाईन पद्धतीने साजरा करण्यात आला. मराठी भाषा गौरव दिन या विषयावरील व्याख्यान दिनांक २७. २.२०२२ माननीय श्री. इंद्रभान मगर सामाजिक कार्यकर्ते व व्याख्याते यांचे व्याख्यान ऑनलाईन पद्धतीने दिले. प्राध्यापक सौ. हेमलता संजय भवर यांनी श्री. इंद्रभान मगर यांची ओळख करून दिली व कार्यक्रमाचे प्रास्ताविक केले. प्राचार्य डॉक्टर संजय भवर सर यांनी श्री. इंद्रभान मगर यांचे स्वागत व मराठी भाषा गौरव दिन विषयी विद्यार्थ्यांना मार्गदर्शन केले. कवी कुसुमाग्रज यांचा जन्मदिवस म्हणून आपण हा दिवस साजरा करतो.

मगर सरांनी मराठी भाषेचे महत्व उदाहरणासहित विद्यार्थ्यांना सांगितले. पूर्वी संस्कृत भाषा सर्वसामान्य जनतेला येत नव्हती त्यावेळी संस्कृत ग्रंथांचे रूपांतर मराठी भाषेत करून त्यातील ज्ञान सर्वसामान्य जनतेपर्यंत अनेक संतांनी जसे की संत तुकाराम यांनी पोहोचवले. मराठी भाषेतील विविध ग्रंथ व आत्ताच्या काळात उत्तम मनस्थिती साठी या ग्रंथांचा उपयोग कसा होतो हेही उदाहरणा सहित यांनी सांगितले. म्हणून मराठी भाषा गौरव दिन किती महत्त्वाचा आहे या विषयावर त्यांनी मार्गदर्शन केले. तसेच मराठी भाषेतील विविध ग्रंथ, कविता, लेखन विषयांवरही त्यांनी चर्चा केली.

डॉक्टर सुहास सिद्धेश्वर सर यांनी आभार प्रदर्शन केले. मराठी भाषेचा प्रचार व प्रसार होण्यासाठी सोशल मीडिया एक उत्तम माध्यम असल्याने महाविद्यालयाच्या स्वतःच्या फेसबुक पेजवर तसेच विद्यार्थी शिक्षक व्हाट्सअप वर सुद्धा प्रसार करण्यात आला.

Anti-Ragging Policy

This policy has been formulated in consonance with UGC Rules 2016, on Anti Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions / Universities, as published in the gazette notification.

1. General

- a) In view of the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, and in consideration of the rules framed by the Central Government and the UGC, to prohibit, prevent and eliminate ragging and to provide for the healthy development, physically and psychologically, of all students, SRM University, AP – Amaravati has set forth the Anti-Ragging Policy as listed in succeeding paragraphs.
- b) The Vice Chancellor shall be responsible for implementation of rules listed here under this policy. However, he may delegate the functional roles and procedures to any other Officer of the University, so nominated as the Nodal Officer for anti-ragging function in the University.

2. Objectives of the Policy

To prohibit, prevent and eliminate any conduct by any student or students which constitutes ragging.

3. What constitutes Ragging

Ragging constitutes one or more of any of the following acts:

- a) any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student;
- b) indulging in rowdy or indiscipline activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student;
- c) asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student;
- d) any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or a fresher;
- e) exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students;
- f) any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by students;
- g) any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person;

- h) any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, post, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to fresher or any other student;
- i) any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or any other student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student.

4. Measures for prohibition of ragging at the University level

The University shall comply with following guidelines of the UGC:

- a) The University or any part of it thereof, including its elements, including, but not limited to, the schools, departments, constituent units, centres of studies and all its premises, whether academic, residential, playgrounds, or canteen, whether located within the campus or outside, and in all means of transportation of students, whether public or private, accessed by students for the pursuit of studies in University, shall not permit or condone any reported incident of ragging in any form; and it shall take all necessary and required measures, including but not limited to the provisions of these Rules, to achieve the objective of eliminating ragging, within the University or outside;
- b) The University shall take action in accordance with the Rules of UGC against those found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging, actively or passively, or being part of a conspiracy to promote ragging.

5. Measures for prevention of ragging at the University level

- a) The University shall take the following steps in regard to admission or registration of students:
 - i. Public declaration of intent, in its electronic, audio-visual or print or any other media, for admission of students to any course of study and shall expressly provide that ragging is totally prohibited in the University, and anyone found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging, whether actively or passively, or being a part of a conspiracy to promote ragging, shall be liable to be punished in accordance with the laid down Rules as well as under the provisions of any penal law for the time being in force.
 - ii. The brochure of admission/instruction booklet or the prospectus, whether in print or electronic format, shall prominently print and contain such a warning as above, including the consequences, as may be applicable.
 - iii. Students shall be provided with the telephone numbers of the Anti-Ragging Helpline and all the important functionaries in the University including but not limited to the Vice Chancellor, Deans/Directors, members of the Anti-Ragging Committees and Anti-Ragging Squads, Wardens of Hostels, and other functionaries or authorities as relevant.
 - iv. The enrollment letters shall contain the format of an undertaking, mandatorily in English as provided in the UGC Rules or reference to the link for on line anti ragging declaration portal, to be filled up and signed by the applicant and parents (Refer Annexure 2). This undertaking states to the effect that he/she/parents (they) have read and understood the provisions of anti-ragging policy as well as the provisions of any other law for the time being in force, and are aware of the prohibition of ragging and the punishments prescribed, both under penal laws as well as under University

Rules and also affirm to the effect that student has not been expelled and/or debarred by any University and further aver that student would not indulge, actively or passively, in the act or abet the act of ragging and if found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging, is liable to be proceeded against under the Rules or under any penal law or any other law for the time being in force and such action would include but is not limited to debarment or expulsion of such student. These undertakings shall be signed by all students.

- v. Before the commencement of the academic session, the Vice Chancellor shall convene and address a meeting of various functionaries/agencies, such as Hostel Wardens, Concerned Directors, representatives of students, parents/guardians (if feasible), faculty, administration including the police (if considered essential), to discuss the measures to be taken to prevent ragging in the University and steps to be taken to identify those indulging in or abetting ragging and punish them.
- vi. The University shall, to make the community at large and the students in particular aware of the dehumanizing effect of ragging, and the approach of the University towards those indulging in ragging, prominently display posters depicting the provisions of penal law applicable to incidents of ragging, and the provisions of these rules and also any other law for the time being in force, and the punishments thereof. It shall also prominently display the same, on Notice Boards in hostels and other buildings as well as at places, where students normally gather and at places, known to be vulnerable to occurrences of ragging incidents.
- vii. The University shall identify, properly illuminate and keep a close watch on all locations known to be vulnerable to occurrences of ragging incidents. The University shall tighten security in its premises, especially at vulnerable places through intense policing by Anti-Ragging Squads and volunteers, if any, which shall be resorted to at such points at odd hours during the initial duration of the academic session as may be decided by the authorities.
- viii. The University shall utilize the vacation period before the start of the new academic year to launch a campaign against ragging through posters, leaflets and such other means, as may be desirable or required.
- ix. The schools/ departments/ centers/ units of the University shall have induction arrangements, including those which anticipate, identify and plan to meet any special needs of any specific section of students, in place well in advance of the beginning of the academic year with an aim to promote the objectives of Anti ragging.
- x. University may tie up or engage or seek the assistance of professional counsellors before the commencement of the academic session, to be available when required by the University, for the purposes of offering counselling to freshers and to other students after the commencement of the academic year.

b) University shall, on the day of registration of students, take the following steps:

- i. Every fresh student admitted to the University shall be given a printed leaflet detailing to whom he/she has to turn to for help and guidance for various purposes including addresses and telephone numbers, so as to enable the student to contact the concerned person at any time, if and when required.

- ii. The University, through the leaflet specified in clause (a) shall also explain to the freshers, the arrangements made for their induction and orientation which promote efficient and effective means of integrating them fully as students with those already admitted to the University in earlier years.
- iii. The leaflet specified in clause (a) shall also inform the freshers about their rights as bona fide students of the University and clearly instructing them that they should desist from doing anything, with or against their will, even if ordered by the senior students, and that any attempt of ragging shall be promptly reported to the Anti-ragging Squad or to the Warden or to the Director – Student Affairs or to the Vice Chancellor, as the case may be.
- iv. The leaflet specified in clause (a) shall contain a calendar of events and activities laid down by the University to facilitate and complement familiarization of freshers with the academic environment of the University.
- v. The University shall, on the arrival of senior students after the first week or after the second week, as the case may be, schedule orientation programs as follows, namely;
 - 1. Joint sensitization program and counselling of both freshers and senior students by a professional counsellor
 - 2. Joint orientation program of freshers and seniors to be addressed by the Vice Chancellor and the anti-ragging committee
 - 3. Organization on a large scale of cultural, sports and other activities to provide a platform for the freshers and seniors to interact in the presence of faculty members;
 - 4. In the hostel, the warden should address all students and may request two junior colleagues from the college faculty to assist the warden by becoming resident tutors for a temporary duration.
 - 5. As far as possible, faculty members should dine with the hostel residents in their respective hostels to instil a feeling of confidence among the freshers.
- vi. The University may set up appropriate committees, including the course-in-charge, student advisor, Wardens and some senior students as its members, to actively monitor, promote and regulate healthy interaction between the freshers, junior students and senior students.
- vii. Freshers or any other student(s), whether being victims, or witnesses, in any incident of ragging, shall be encouraged to report such occurrence, and the identity of such informants shall be protected and shall not be subject to any adverse consequence only for the reason for having reported such incidents.
- viii. Each batch of freshers, on arrival at the University, shall be divided into small groups and each such group shall be assigned to a member of the faculty, who shall interact individually with each member of the group for ascertaining the problems or difficulties, if any, faced by the fresher in the University and shall extend necessary help to the fresher in overcoming the same.
- ix. It shall be the responsibility of the member of the faculty assigned to the group of freshers, to coordinate with the Wardens of the hostels and to make surprise visits to the rooms in such hostels, where a member or members of the group are lodged; and such member of faculty shall maintain a diary of his/her interaction with the freshers under his/her charge.
- x. Freshers shall be lodged, as far as may be, in a separate hostel block, and where such facilities are not available, the University shall ensure that access of seniors to accommodation allotted to freshers is strictly monitored by wardens, security guards and other staff of the University.

- xi. A round the clock vigil against ragging in the hostel premises, in order to prevent ragging in the hostels after the classes are over, shall be ensured by the University.
- xii. It shall be the responsibility of the parents/guardians of freshers to promptly bring any instance of ragging to the notice of the Vice Chancellor.
- xiii. Every student at the time of his/her registration shall inform the University about his/her place of residence, if staying outside the campus, while pursuing the course of study,
- xiv. The Vice Chancellor or person nominated by him shall, at the end of each academic year, send a letter to the parents/guardians of the students who are completing their first year in the University, informing them about these Rules and any law for the time being in force prohibiting ragging and the punishments thereof as well as punishments prescribed under the penal laws, and appealing to them to impress upon their wards to desist from indulging in ragging on their return to the University at the beginning of the academic session next.

6. Committees for prevention of Ragging at the University level

The University shall constitute the following bodies:

- a) Anti-Ragging Committee to be nominated and headed by the Vice Chancellor, and consisting of representatives of civil and police administration, local media, Non-Government Organizations involved in youth activities, representatives of faculty members, representatives of parents, representatives of students belonging to the freshers' category as well as senior students, non-teaching staff; and shall have a diverse mix of membership in terms of levels as well as gender. It shall be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Committee to ensure compliance with the provisions of Anti ragging policy as well as the provisions of any law for the time being in force concerning ragging; and also to monitor and oversee the performance of the Anti-Ragging Squad in prevention of ragging in the University. The details are provided at Annexure 1.
- b) A smaller body to be known as the Anti-Ragging Squad to be nominated by the Vice Chancellor with such representation as may be considered necessary for maintaining vigil, oversight and patrolling functions and shall remain mobile, alert and active at all times. Provided that the Anti-Ragging Squad shall have representation of various members of the campus community and shall have no outside representation.
- c) It shall be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Squad to be called upon to make surprise raids on hostels, and other places vulnerable to incidents of, and having the potential of, ragging and shall be empowered to inspect such places.
- d) It shall also be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Squad to conduct an on-the-spot enquiry into any incident of ragging referred to it by the Vice Chancellor or any member of the faculty or any member of the staff or any student or any parent or guardian or any employee of a service provider or by any other person, as the case may be; and the enquiry report along with recommendations shall be submitted to the Anti-Ragging Committee for action.

- e) Provided that the Anti-Ragging Squad shall conduct such enquiry observing a fair and transparent procedure and the principles of natural justice and after giving adequate opportunity to the student or students accused of ragging and other witnesses to place before it the facts, documents and views concerning the incident of ragging, and considering such other relevant information as may be required.
- f) The University shall, at the end of each academic year, in order to promote the objectives of these Rules, constitute a Mentoring Cell consisting of students volunteering to be Mentors for freshers, in the succeeding academic year; and there shall be as many levels or tiers of Mentors as the number of batches in the University, at the rate of one Mentor for six freshers and one Mentor of a higher level for six Mentors of the lower level.
- g) The University shall constitute a body to be known as Monitoring Cell on Ragging, which shall coordinate to achieve the objectives of these Rules; and the Monitoring Cell shall review reports from the Anti-ragging committee and it shall also keep itself abreast of the decisions of the District Level Anti-Ragging Committee headed by the District Magistrate. The Monitoring Cell shall also review the efforts made by University to publicize anti-ragging measures, soliciting of affidavits from parents/guardians and from students, to abstain from ragging activities or willingness to be penalized for violations; and shall function as the prime mover for initiating action on the part of the appropriate authorities of the university for amending the Statutes or Ordinances to facilitate the implementation of anti-ragging measures at the level of the University.
- h) The University shall take the following other measures:
 - i. Each hostel or a place where groups of students reside, forming part of the University, shall have a full-time Warden, to be appointed by the University as per the eligibility criteria laid down for the post reflecting both the command and control aspects of maintaining discipline and preventing incidents of ragging within the hostel, as well as the softer skills of counselling and communicating with the youth outside the class-room situation; and who shall reside within the hostel, or at the very least, in the close vicinity thereof.
 - ii. The Warden shall be accessible at all hours and be available on telephone and other modes of communication, and for the purpose the Warden shall be provided with a mobile phone by the University, the number of which shall be publicized among all students residing in the hostel.
 - iii. The University shall review and suitably enhance the powers of Wardens; and the security personnel posted in hostels shall be under the direct control of the Warden and their performance shall be assessed by them.
 - iv. The professional counsellors should counsel freshers and/or any other student(s) desiring counselling, in order to prepare them for the life ahead, particularly in regard to the life in hostels and to the extent possible, also involve parents and teachers in the counselling sessions.
 - v. The University shall undertake measures for extensive publicity against ragging by means of audio-visual aids, counselling sessions, workshops, painting and design competitions among students and such other measures, as it may deem fit.
 - vi. The faculty of the University and its non-teaching staff, which includes, but is not limited to the administrative staff, contract employees, security guards and employees of service providers providing services within the University, shall be sensitized towards the ills of ragging, its prevention and the consequences thereof.

- vii. The University shall obtain an undertaking from every employee of the University including all teaching and non-teaching members of staff, contract labour employed in the premises either for running canteen or as watch and ward staff or for cleaning or maintenance of the buildings/lawns and employees of service providers providing services within the University, that he/she would report promptly any case of ragging which comes to his/her notice.
- viii. The University shall make a provision in the service rules of its employees for issuing certificates of appreciation to such members of the staff who report incidents of ragging, which will form part of their service record.
- ix. The University shall give necessary instructions to the employees of the canteens and mess, whether that of the University or that of a service provider providing this service, or their employers, as the case may be, to keep a strict vigil in the area of their work and to report the incidents of ragging to the Vice Chancellor or members of the Anti-Ragging Squad or members of the Anti-Ragging Committee or the Wardens, as may be required.
- x. Discreet random surveys shall be conducted amongst the freshers every fortnight during the first three months of the academic year to verify and cross-check whether the University is indeed free of ragging or not and for the purpose the University may design its own methodology of conducting such surveys.
- xi. The University shall cause to have an entry, apart from those relating to general conduct and behaviour, made in the Migration/Transfer Certificate issued to the student while leaving the University, as to whether the student has been punished for committing or abetting an act of ragging, as also whether the student has displayed persistent violent or aggressive behaviour or any inclination to harm others, during his course of study in the University.
- xii. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules with regard to obligations and responsibilities pertaining to the authorities or members of bodies prescribed above, it shall be the general collective responsibility of all levels and sections of authorities or functionaries including members of the faculty and employees of the University, whether regular or temporary, and employees of service providers providing service within the University, to prevent or to act promptly against the occurrence of ragging or any incident of ragging which comes to their notice.
- xiii. The Vice Chancellor, if asked for by UGC, shall submit fortnightly reports of the University, including those of the Monitoring Cell on Ragging in case of an affiliating university, to the State Level Monitoring Cell.

7. Action to be taken by the Vice Chancellor

- a) On receipt of the recommendation of the Anti-Ragging Squad or on receipt of any information concerning any reported incident of ragging, the Vice Chancellor shall immediately determine if a case under the penal laws is made out and if so, either on his own or through a member of the Anti-Ragging Committee authorized by him in this behalf, proceed to file a First Information Report (FIR), within twenty four hours of receipt of such information or recommendation, with the police and local authorities, under the appropriate penal provisions relating to one or more of the following, namely;

- i. Abetment to ragging;
- ii. Criminal conspiracy to rag;
- iii. Unlawful assembly and rioting while ragging;
- iv. Public nuisance created during ragging;
- v. Violation of decency and morals through ragging;
- vi. Injury to body, causing hurt or grievous hurt;
- vii. Wrongful restraint;
- viii. Wrongful confinement;
- ix. Use of criminal force;
- x. Assault as well as sexual offences or unnatural offences;
- xi. Extortion;
- xii. Criminal trespass;
- xiii. Offences against property;
- xiv. Criminal intimidation;
- xv. Attempts to commit any or all of the above-mentioned offences against the victim(s);
- xvi. Threat to commit any or all of the above-mentioned offences against the victim(s);
- xvii. Physical or psychological humiliation;
- xviii. All other offences following from the definition of "Ragging".

Provided that the Vice Chancellor shall forthwith report the occurrence of the incident of ragging to the District Level Anti-Ragging Committee.

Provided further that the University shall also continue with its own enquiry initiated and other measures without waiting for action on the part of the police/local authorities and such remedial action shall be initiated and completed immediately and in no case later than a period of seven days of the reported occurrence of the incident of ragging.

8. Responsibilities of the Commission and the Councils (which should be known to the Students)

- a) Any distress message received at the Anti-Ragging Helpline shall be simultaneously relayed to the Vice Chancellor, the Warden of the Hostels, and if so required, the District Magistrate, and the Superintendent of Police, and shall also be web enabled so as to be in the public domain simultaneously for the media and citizens to access it.
- b) The Vice Chancellor shall be obliged to act immediately in response to the information received from the Anti-Ragging Helpline.
- c) In order to enable a student or any person to communicate with the Anti-Ragging Helpline, University shall permit unrestricted access to mobile phones and public phones in hostels and campuses, other than in class-rooms, seminar halls, library, and in such other places that the University may deem it necessary to restrict the use of phones.

9. Administrative action in the event of ragging

- a) The University shall punish a student found guilty of ragging after following the procedure and in the manner prescribed herein-under:
 - i. The Anti-Ragging Committee of the University shall take an appropriate decision, in regard to punishment or otherwise, depending on the facts of each incident of ragging and nature and gravity of the incident of ragging established in the recommendations of the Anti-Ragging Squad.

- ii. The Anti-Ragging Committee may, depending on the nature and gravity of the guilt established by the Anti-Ragging Squad, award, to those found guilty, one or more of the following punishments, namely;
 1. Suspension from attending classes and academic privileges.
 2. Withholding/ withdrawing scholarship/ fellowship and other benefits.
 3. Debarring from appearing in any test/ examination or other evaluation process.
