Pravara Rural College of Pharmacy, Loni is also the first Pharmacy College to win the "Nirmal College Award" by the Maharashtra Govt.

About Conference

The conference focuses on addressing the growing demand for standardized herbal products. It explores the development, regulation, and quality control of herbal formulations, emphasizing their therapeutic potential and safety. Experts discuss challenges like variability in raw materials, lack of global standardization, and regulatory hurdles. The event also highlights opportunities for innovation, sustainable sourcing, and integrating traditional knowledge with modern science. Aimed at researchers, industry professionals, and policymakers, the conference fosters collaboration to enhance the credibility and global acceptance of herbal medicines.

Objectives of Conference

- Develop standardized protocols for quality, safety, and efficacy of herbal formulations.
- Identify and address regulatory challenges in the global approval of herbal products.
- Encourage scientific research and innovation in evidence-based herbal medicine development.
- Bridge traditional herbal knowledge with modern scientific validation.
- Foster international collaboration among researchers, industry stakeholders, and policymakers.
- Promote sustainable practices in sourcing, cultivation, and processing of herbal raw materials.
