

RESOURCE MOBILISATION POLICY

INTRODUCTION

The resource mobilization is a process to find out, and how to acquire the resources needed to carry out work on services. It focuses on what is necessary to assess and what resources are currently available and how those resources are being used and how additional resources and resource partners can be identified and exploited. The term 'resource' is understood to mean only 'funds'. Mobilization and generation of resources is also seen as synonymous with securing new or additional resources, it is also about making better use of, or maximizing of existing resources. Mobilization is 'the process of organizations for the pursuit of collective goals. In the context of college service, it can be concluded that resource generation and mobilization means mobilizing the financial resources to strengthen college and its library as well. It is process or an activity that takes place to mobilize with a strategic planning.
